CRITERIA FOR NAMING A PRIVATE ROADWAY

Note: Roadway names submitted will be reviewed and a name will be chosen based on the following criteria

1. Naming of a new or renaming of an existing named, privately owned roadway, must go through Austin County Commissioners Court process and approved/denied as determined by the County Commissioners;
2. New development roadways which are a continuation of an existing roadway, regardless of ownership, will be given the same roadway name;
3. All private roadway names will use the road descriptor Lane. NO EXCEPTIONS
4. If a roadway name cannot be agreed upon by the property owners / residents, the County can designate a roadway name of its choosing.
5. Roadway names must be considered in good taste.
6. Roadway names cannot duplicate an existing roadway name elsewhere within Austin County;
7. A roadway name cannot be used if the pronunciation sounds similar to an existing roadway name, even if they are spelled differently (example: Meyer, Meier);
8. Applicant's roadway name preference will be given first consideration in determining name;
9. Roadway names shall not be possessive (for example, Clyde's Circle, Mary's Lane);
10. Use of family names may be restricted. It is likely a unanimous agreement among all property owners / residents will be required in order to name a roadway with a family name.
