Re: Goat Wind, LLC Wind Energy Project located in Coke County, Texas (the "Project")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

As the County Judge of Coke County, Texas ("County"), I am writing in my judicial capacity to confirm to Goat Wind, LLC ("Company"), and its successors and assigns, that the County acknowledges that the Company contemplates making certain improvements to the real property located within the in the portion of the County described on Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference ("Project Area"), such improvements consist of repowering an approximately 9,325-acre operating wind project, and related facilities (collectively, "Improvements"). This letter confirms that there are no Coke County rules or ordinances that would require the Project or the Company to obtain zoning approval, a permit, or an authorization for the ownership, construction, operation or maintenance of the Project and its Improvements within the Project Area, except as listed in Exhibit B. In addition, there are no Coke County rules or ordinances regarding decommissioning, safety buffer zones, set back requirements, noise restrictions, shade, glare, reflection, shadow or visibility restrictions, or other zoning rules or regulations affecting the proposed ownership, construction, operation and maintenance of the Project facilities and Improvements.

Sincerely,

Judge Hal Spain
