June 3, 2014

Dear Attorney:

Effective June 13, 2014 if you intend to file a waiver of arraignment in a misdemeanor case in Madison County Court it must be filed at least 72 hours prior to your client's scheduled arraignment date and time. If a waiver of arraignment is not timely filed your client's presence is required in court. If your client is not present in court a failure to appear warrant may be issued. It is the attorneys' and the bondsmen's responsibility to have their clients present.

All original motions and waivers should be mailed to the Madison County Clerk at 103 West Trinity, Suite 104, Madisonville, Texas 77864 for filing with a copy sent to the Madison County District Attorney's office at 101 West Main Street, Suite 207, Madisonville, Texas 77864.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "A. M. Henson", written over a horizontal line.

Arthur M. Henson
Madison County Judge
