National 4-H Week Proclamation: Llano County

WHEREAS, this year's National 4-H Week theme, "Beyond Ready," reminds us that 4-H is building a ready generation in a world of change and equips young people with skills for the future while meeting them where they are today;

WHEREAS, 4-H is America's largest youth development organization, supporting six million youth across the country. Right here in Llano County, through the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, 4-H provides hands-on learning experiences in agriculture, science, healthy living, leadership, and citizenship; and

WHEREAS, Our Llano County 4-H members gain confidence, independence, and life skills that prepare them to be strong students, workers, and community leaders. Together with dedicated volunteers, these young people give back through service projects that strengthen our schools, neighborhoods, and communities.;

WHEREAS, 4-H connects young people and adults to their communities, preparing them for work and life through experiential and inquiry-based learning while providing emerging research for positive youth development; and

WHEREAS, expanding from its strong agricultural roots, Llano County 4-H continues to grow, engaging youth from every corner of our county. Whether they are showing animals, giving presentations, learning food and nutrition, or serving their neighbors, our 4-H members are proving that they are the leaders of today and tomorrow;

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Llano County Commissioners Court, do hereby proclaim October 5 -11 2025 as NATIONAL 4-H WEEK throughout Llano County, and encourage all our citizens to recognize 4-H for the significant impact it has made and continues to make by empowering youth with the skills they need to lead for a lifetime.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands on this October 14th, 2025.
