

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: Pensar LED is a Florida based company that manufactures high resolution, large scale, video wall displays serving residential, commercial and federal clients throughout the United States and abroad; and

WHEREAS: Pensar LED is a trusted provider of mission-critical display technologies, currently serving as a classified supplier to CENTCOM and other DoD commands with proprietary manufacturing processes, secure system architectures, and compliance-driven engineering have earned them a reputation for excellence across the federal defense space; and

WHEREAS: Pensar LED has informed Llano County of their strategic plan to relocate their business headquarters and product assembly and distribution center to Llano County; and

WHEREAS: Establishing the Pensar LED facility in Llano County will inject high-skilled manufacturing jobs into the local economy, stimulate regional growth, and create new opportunities for workforce development in advanced electronics and defense technologies; and

WHEREAS: The infusion of Texas CHIPS funding into Llano County will not only catalyze local economic growth, but also reinforce Texas's leadership in defense-grade manufacturing, semiconductor innovation, and national security infrastructure; and

WHEREAS: This action will bring Buy American Act compliant production back to U.S. soil, eliminating reliance on overseas suppliers and ensuring that DoD command and control display systems are built securely and domestically-right here in Llano, Texas; and

WHEREAS: In June 2023, Governor Abbott signed into law the Texas CHIPS Act (House Bill 5174) to leverage Texas' investments in the semiconductor industry, encourage semiconductor-related companies to expand in the state, further develop the expertise and capacity at Texas higher education institutions and maintain the state's position as the nation's leader in semiconductor manufacturing; and

WHEREAS: Pensar LED is applying for a $15 MM grant from the CHIPS and Science Act funding source with the intent to purchase, renovate, and develop property in Llano County to serve as development and distribution of Pensar products; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the undersigned elected officials of Llano County support and endorse Pensar's application to the CHIPS and Science Act grant application for the purposes of relocation to Llano County.

Signed this 14 day of October 2025.
