

Courtroom Attire

Proper Dress is Required in Court

All requirements pertain to both adult and juvenile, males and females unless otherwise noted. Failure to comply may result in the resetting of the case to a later date, or in the extreme, contempt of court. The following are prohibited:

- No clothing displaying offensive words or pictures (the Court retains exclusive right to define “offensive” on an individual basis),
- No exposed midriffs,
- No hats,
- No shorts.

Officers of the Court

Officers of the Court are held to the higher standards generally recognized in Texas courts: Dress accordingly to the dignity and respect of the Court.
