

What is a Primary Runoff Election?

A Runoff Election is a second Primary Election held to determine a winner when no candidate in the Primary Election met the required threshold for victory. Runoff elections determine the candidate that will appear on the ballot for the General Election.