There are two types of leave available, including the basic 12-week leave entitlement (Family and Medical Leave), as well as the military family leave entitlements (Military Family Leave—MFL) described in this policy.

Employees with any questions about their eligibility for FMLA leave should contact the County Treasurer's office for more information.

 - a. The birth of a child and in order to care for that child;

6. The County will measure the 12 month period as a rolling 12 month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any leave under this policy for all FMLA and MFL leave (see below).
7. All leave taken under this policy during the prior 12 month period shall be subtracted from the employee's FMLA or MFL leave eligibility and the balance is the leave the employee is entitled to take at that time.
8. If a husband and wife both work for the County, the maximum combined leave they shall be allowed to take in any 12 month for the birth or placement of a child is 12 weeks.

MILITARY FAMILY LEAVE

9. Under the MFL, there are two types of leave available: 1) a qualifying exigency leave; and 2) leave to care for a covered service member.
10. Employees meeting the eligibility requirements described above may be entitled to use up to 12 weeks of their FMLA Leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Leave may be used if the employee's spouse, son, or daughter, in the Armed Forces (Regular, Reserves or National Guard) is on active duty or called to active duty status in a foreign country. 11. There is also a special leave entitlement that permits employees who meet the eligibility requirements for FMLA leave to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces (Regular, Reserve or National Guard) who has been rendered medically unfit to perform his or her duties due to a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty while on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list. This also includes a veteran who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness and who was a member of the Armed Forces (Regular, Reserve or National Guard) at any time during the period of 5 years preceding the date on which the veteran undergoes that medical treatment, recuperation or therapy.

INTERMITTENT LEAVE AND REDUCED SCHEDULE

18. An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations.
19. Military Family Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.
20. Leave may not be taken on an intermittent basis when used to care for the employee's own child during the first year following birth, or to care for a child placed with the employee for foster care or adoption, unless both the employer and employee agree to such intermittent leave.

21. All work time missed as the result of intermittent leave or a reduced work schedule under this policy shall be deducted from the employee's FMLA/MFL leave eligibility.

REFUGIO COUNTY
RETURN-TO-WORK POLICY

POLICY OVERVIEW

1. This policy covers employees who are on leave due to an occupational injury or illness. Because employees are our most valuable resource, Refugio County attempts to help employees return to work as soon as possible after their physician or medical provider certifies their fitness to do so.

COORDINATION WITH ATTENDING PHYSICIAN OR MEDICAL PROVIDER

2. An employee on leave due to a work-related disability can return to work only when Refugio County receives the attending physician or medical provider's written medical release authorizing such return. Refugio County's Treasurer's Office, in conjunction with the elected official, is responsible for providing the physician or medical provider with a copy of the employee's job description, copies of job descriptions for potential light-duty assignments, and written information explaining Refugio County's return-to-work program.

JOB DESCRIPTIONS

3. Each elected official is responsible for working with supervisors to ensure that job descriptions accurately and completely describe the essential functions of each position. Each elected official will work with the Treasurer's Office and medical consultants to analyze any new light-duty position and develop a job description describing the essential functions of that position.

RETURN TO WORK OPTIONS

4. Arrangements to facilitate an employee's early return to work will be made in consultation with the employee's attending physician and/or other qualified medical professionals retained by Refugio County or its insurance carrier. The following options may be explored:
 - a. Return to prior position. An employee is offered the opportunity to return to his or her prior position if the attending physician or medical provider certifies that the employee can perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodations. The Treasurer's Office will be responsible for working with the employee's supervisor, the elected official, and attending physician or medical provider (and third party consultants, as necessary) to provide any reasonable accommodations.
 - b. Light duty. An employee who is not yet able to return to his former duties is offered (subject to the restrictions set out in section 5 of this policy) a temporary light-duty assignment that has been approved by the employee's attending physician or medical provider. The Treasurer's Office will be responsible for working with the employee's supervisor, the elected official, and the employee's attending physician or medical provider to develop and implement the light-duty assignment. The assignment can consist of the employee's regular job with reduced working hours and/or activities, or an alternative light-duty position.

RESTRICTIONS ON LIGHT DUTY ASSIGNMENTS

5. The following restrictions apply to light-duty assignments:
 - a. No guarantee of work. As provided in section 4 of this policy, Refugio County must endeavor to return employees to gainful employment as soon as possible by exploring possible light-duty assignments. However, Refugio County does not guarantee the availability of light-duty work.
 - b. Pay rates and Workers' Compensation benefits. Employees on light duty are not guaranteed the rate of pay they received for the position they held at the time they sustained their work-related injury or illness. (Exception: Deputies and jailers are guaranteed 100% salary continuation as guaranteed by the State Constitution). The pay rate for a light-duty assignment is based on the knowledge, skills, and abilities required for the job as well as general market conditions. Employees who return to work in light-duty positions before they have reached maximum medical improvement are eligible for temporary partial disability benefits under Texas's Workers' Compensation program if they earn less than they earned in the position held at the time they sustained the work-related accident or illness. Employees in light-duty positions are not permitted to supplement their Workers' Compensation benefits by using their accrued vacation, personal, or medical/sick leave.
 - c. 4-Week limit. Light-duty assignments are temporary arrangements intended to complement and facilitate the healing process. Light-duty assignments cannot exceed 4 weeks without approval from employee's supervisor and elected official. Light-duty assignments are to comply with all reasonable accommodation efforts and provisions under the ADA.

EMPLOYEE REFUSAL OF WORK/TRAINING

6. In the event that an employee refuses to return to regular or light duties in response to a written, bona fide offer of employment by Refugio County sent via certified mail, the employee is separated from Refugio County and his/her position will be filled permanently (NOTE: An exception to this rule applies in the case of employees who have not yet exhausted their FMLA leave entitlement. (See section 9)). A written offer of employment must clearly state:
 - a. the position offered and the duties of the position;
 - b. Refugio County's agreement to any limitations or conditions set out in the attending physician or medical provider's certification of the employee's fitness to return to work;

- c. the job's essential functions; and
- d. the job's wage, working hours, and location.

PERMANENT DISABILITIES

7. When reaching maximum medical improvement, an employee can have a permanent disability that impairs the employee's ability, with or without reasonable accommodations, to return to his or her regular position. Refugio County, in consultation with the employee's attending physician or medical provider and Texas's Workers' Compensation Department, must evaluate the following options:
 - a. Securing vocational rehabilitation services from the state's resources or private consultants, as appropriate. Services can include assessment and testing, counseling, and training.
 - b. Finding a position at Refugio County commensurate with the employee's knowledge, skills, and abilities.

Employees with permanent disabilities are paid partial or total permanent disability benefits as required under Texas's Workers' Compensation program.

MEDICAL INFORMATION

8. All employee medical information is held in strict confidence in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act. Medical inquiries are limited to those permitted under Texas's Workers' Compensation statute and applicable federal law.

COORDINATION WITH FMLA

9. Nothing in this policy should be construed as denying employees their rights under the Family and Medical Leave Act or any other federal or state law.

It is Refugio County's policy to designate an employee's leave due to a work-related injury or illness as FMLA leave if eligible. To the extent permitted by the FMLA, Refugio County counts the period of an employee's light-duty assignment toward the employee's FMLA entitlement.

Employees entitled to FMLA leave can voluntarily accept light-duty assignments while they are recuperating, but they cannot be required to do so. (Note: This refusal can result in the loss of Workers' Compensation income benefits.) Employees who lose their workers' compensation benefits as a result of declining a light-duty assignment are required to substitute any available paid leave, such as accrued vacation, compensatory, personal, or medical/sick leave, for unpaid FMLA leave. Until employees have exhausted their 12-week FMLA entitlement, they have the right to be reinstated in their original job or an equivalent job provided that they are able to perform the job's essential functions.

POLICY ON DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING AND ABUSE FOR C.D.L. DRIVERS

CDL Drivers are an extremely valuable resource for Refugio County's business. Their health and safety is a serious County concern. Drug or alcohol use may pose a serious threat to driver health and safety. It is, therefore, the policy of the County to prevent substance use or abuse from having an adverse effect on our drivers. The County maintains that the work environment is safer and more productive without the presence of alcohol, illegal or inappropriate drugs in the body or on County property.

The adverse impact of substance abuse by CDL drivers has been recognized by the federal government. The Federal Highway Administration ("FHWA") has issued regulations, which require the County to implement a controlled substance testing program. The County will comply with these regulations and is committed to maintaining a drug-free work place. All CDL drivers are advised that remaining drug-free and medically qualified to drive are conditions of continued employment with the County.

Specifically, it is the policy of Refugio County that the use, sale, purchase, transfer, possession or presence in one's system of any controlled substance (except medically prescribed drugs) by any CDL driver while on County premises, engaged in County business, while operating County equipment, or while under the authority of the County is strictly prohibited. FHWA stated that mandatory testing must apply to every person who operates a commercial motor vehicle in interstate or intrastate commerce and is subject to the CDL licensing requirement. Refugio County will conduct pre-employment, random, reasonable suspicion, post-accident, and return to work drug and alcohol testing in accordance with federal law.

A detailed policy and procedure is available at the Treasurer's office.

REFUGIO COUNTY
FRAUD POLICY

PURPOSE

Refugio County has been created to support Refugio County's commitment to protecting County revenue, property, reputation and other assets; to emphasize clearly the need for accurate financial reporting; and to define guidelines for the investigation and handling of fraud, should it occur.

APPLICABILITY

The Refugio County Fraud Policy applies to all employees of Refugio County and includes all full-time, part-time, seasonal, volunteer, and other temporary employees.

DEFINITION

In law, "fraud" generally involves an act of deception, bribery, forgery, extortion, theft, misappropriation, false representation, conspiracy, corruption, collusion, embezzlement, or concealment of material facts. Fraud may be committed by an individual, a group of individuals, or by one or more organizations. Fraud is a violation of trust that, in general, refers to an intentional act committed to secure personal or business advantage. While fraud can cover many activities, this Policy is directed primarily at financial matters that could be legally defined as fraud. Examples of "financial fraud" generally fall into two broad categories and may include, but are not limited to:

- a. Misappropriation of Assets
 1. Forgery, alteration or misappropriation of checks, drafts, or securities
 2. Unauthorized, non-business acquisition, use, or disposition of funds, inventory, furniture, fixtures, equipment, records, or other assets
 3. Embezzlement
 4. Theft
 5. Falsifying time sheets or payroll records
 6. Falsifying travel and expenses and/or utilizing company funds to pay for personal expenses
 7. Misappropriation of County-owned computer hardware, software, data, or other records including company intangibles (e.g. proprietary information, trade secrets, patents, etc.)

b. Expenditures and Liabilities for Improper Purposes

1. Bribery
2. Kickbacks

GENERAL POLICY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. It is the County's intent to investigate any suspected acts of fraud, misappropriation or other similar irregularity. An objective and impartial investigation, as deemed necessary, will be conducted regardless of the position, title, office, length of service or relationship with the County of any party who might be or becomes involved in or becomes/is the subject of such investigation.
2. Each Elected Official/Department Head/Supervisor is responsible for instituting and maintaining a system of internal control to provide reasonable assurance for the prevention and detection of fraud, misappropriations and other irregularities. Management should be familiar with the types of improprieties that might occur within their area of responsibility and be alert for any indications of such conduct.
3. The County Auditor, with consultation and support from the appropriate supervisor, has the primary responsibility for overseeing the investigation of all activity as defined in this policy. The Auditor will immediately notify the Commissioners' Court of any significant fraud investigation. Also, the Auditor will involve others including Personnel Department, Legal Counsel as deemed appropriate.
4. Upon conclusion of the investigation, the results will be reported to the appropriate representatives.
5. Where there are reasonable grounds to indicate that a fraud may have occurred, the County may report the incident to the appropriate authorities in order to pursue all legal remedies. Also, the County will pursue every reasonable effort, including court ordered restitution, to obtain recovery of the losses from the offender.

PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING FOR ALL EMPLOYEES

6. Any employee who has knowledge of an occurrence of fraudulent conduct, or has reason to suspect that a fraud has occurred, shall immediately notify their supervisor. If the employee has reason to believe that the employee's supervisor may be involved, the employee shall immediately notify the County Auditor, an appropriate Elected Official, or the County Treasurer.

PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING FOR SUPERVISORS

7. Upon notification from an employee of suspected fraud, or if the manager has reason to suspect that a fraud has occurred, the manager shall immediately notify the County Auditor, an appropriate Elected Official, or the County Treasurer.

INVESTIGATION

8. Upon notification or discovery of a suspected fraud, the Auditor will promptly investigate the fraud. The Auditor will make every effort to keep the investigation confidential; however, from time to time key personnel will need to be consulted in conjunction with the investigation. After an initial review and a determination that the suspected fraud warrants additional investigation, the Auditor will notify the Commissioners' Court and the appropriate Elected Official, Department Head or supervisor as required to deal with the findings. When deemed necessary, the Auditor shall coordinate the investigation with the appropriate law enforcement officials. Internal or external counsel will be involved in the process, as deemed appropriate. It should be noted that there may be certain instances of fraud that will be handled in the normal course of business that will not result in a separate "investigation" by the Auditor's Department. An example of this would be an employee taking home office supplies or other minor items purchased with County funds.

SECURITY OF EVIDENCE

9. Once a suspected fraud is reported, immediate action to prevent the theft, alteration, or destruction of relevant records needs to occur. Such actions include, but are not necessarily limited to, removing the records and placing them in a secure location, limiting access to the location where the records currently exist, and preventing the individual suspected of committing the fraud from having access to the records. The records must be adequately secured until the Auditor obtains the records to begin the audit investigation.

CONFIDENTIALITY

10. All participants in a fraud investigation shall keep the details and results of the investigation confidential. However, as noted above, from time to time other members of the department will need to be consulted in conjunction with the investigation.

PERSONNEL ACTIONS

11. If a suspicion of fraud is substantiated by the investigation, disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, shall be taken by the appropriate elected official in consultation with the Treasurer's Office and legal counsel.

WHISTLE-BLOWER PROTECTION

12. No employee of the County, or person acting on behalf of the County in attempting to comply with this policy shall:
 - a. be dismissed or threatened to be dismissed;
 - b. be disciplined or suspended or threatened to be disciplined or suspended;
 - c. be penalized or any other retribution imposed, or
 - d. be intimidated or coerced,

based to any extent upon the fact that the employee has reported an incident or participated in an investigation in accordance with the requirements of this Policy. Violation of this section of the Policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. If an allegation is made in good faith, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against the originator. If, however, individuals make malicious allegations, action may be considered against the individual making the allegation.
