Section 5. Voting Precincts, Voting Locations, Election Officers. Except as otherwise provided herein, the presently existing boundaries and territory of the respective counties of Bastrop, Caldwell, Hays, Lee, Travis and Williamson that are wholly or partially within the territorial boundaries of ACC's taxing district are hereby designated as the voting precincts of ACC for the Election. The precinct numbers for ACC's election precincts shall be the corresponding Bastrop, Caldwell, Hays, Lee, Travis and Williamson County Election Precinct Number of each precinct that is wholly or partially within the District. The Board finds the use of vote centers, if applicable, under the Countywide Polling Place Program as described in Section 43.007, Texas Election Code, will result in a more convenient voting opportunity for the voters and a more efficient and cost-effective administration of the election, and use of vote centers by each County, where applicable, are hereby approved. The early voting locations, as well as the times and dates for early voting and election day voting locations are attached as Exhibit A which is incorporated by reference herein for all purposes. Exhibit A may be modified to include additional or different voting locations.

To the extent any polling place utilized by the District and designated by the Board for the conduct of the Election is located outside the boundaries of a District election precinct, the Board, pursuant to Section 271.003 of the Texas Election Code, finds that such polling place can adequately and conveniently serve the affected voters and will facilitate the orderly conduct of the Election. In the event that any County Clerk or Elections Administrator shall determine that the polling places hereby established and designated for each County shall become unavailable or unsuitable for such use, or if the District determines that it would be in its best interest to relocate the polling place, the effected County Clerk or Elections Administrator is hereby authorized to designate, in writing, substitute polling places, giving such notice as is required by the Texas Election Code.

The Board approves the appointment of persons designated by each County Clerk or Elections Administrator to serve as election workers in their County. Such proposed presiding judges and alternate judges shall meet the eligibility requirements of Chapter 32, Subchapter C of the Texas Election Code. The rate of pay for judges and clerks of the election shall be determined according to the Election Services Agreement. Compensable hours shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Election Code, as amended (the "Election Code") and other applicable laws. The Board also approves the appointment of persons designated by each County Clerk or Elections Administrator to serve as Deputy Early Voting Clerks, on the Early Voting Ballot Board, and Central Counting Station in their County, as applicable.

Section 6. Early Voting. The Board appoints Alicia del Rio as the Early Voting Clerk for the District. The Early Voting Clerk shall collect any applications for ballot by mail received at the District offices and forward those applications to the correct County election official.

An application for ballot by mail may be faxed or emailed to a voter's corresponding County election official, but a signed original of the application must be received within 4 days of submission. The period to apply for a ballot by mail is January 1, 2022, through October 28, 2022. The application must be received by October 28, 2022 (mere postmarking by the deadline is insufficient).

For the use of those voters who are entitled by law to vote early by mail, the joint early voting clerks shall provide each voter with a ballot with instructions to mark the ballot indicating their vote "FOR" or "AGAINST" the Proposition on the same ballots utilized for early voting by personal appearance at the Election.

Early Voting by Personal Appearance

Early voting by personal appearance shall be conducted beginning October 24, 2022 and ending November 4, 2022. The main early voting location is designated in Exhibit A to this Order. Additionally, permanent and/or temporary branch early voting locations may be established and maintained in accordance with the Texas Election Code. Information regarding the locations, dates, and hours of operation for early voting at these locations shall be determined by each County Clerk or Elections Administrator, as identified in Exhibit A hereto. Exhibit A may be modified to include additional or different early voting locations.

Section 7. Delivery of Voted Ballots; Counting; Tabulation; Canvassing of Returns; Declaring Results. In accordance with the requirements of the Texas Election Code, the Election Officers shall make and deliver a written return of the Election results to the Board in accordance with the Election Code. The Board shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the Election.

Section 8. Appointment of Custodian of Records and Agent. To the extent not otherwise provided for in the election agreements, the Board appoints Alicia Del Rio, ACC's Elections Administrator, as the Custodian of Records ("Custodian") and agent to the Board Secretary ("Agent") to perform the duties related to the conduct and maintenance of records of the Election as required under the Texas Election Code during the period beginning the third (3rd) day after the Election is ordered and ending not earlier than the fortieth (40th) day after the day of the Election.

The Custodian shall maintain an office open for election duties for at least three hours each day, during regular office hours, on regular business days during the period required by law. The Custodian shall post notice of the location and hours of her office as required by the Texas Election Code. The Custodian shall maintain in her office the documents, records, and other items relating to the election and shall be the person designated to receive documents on behalf of ACC that are required by the Texas Election Code. The Joint Custodians of Records ("Joint Custodians") when the joint election agreements are adopted, pursuant to Sections 66.058 and 271.010 of the Election Code, shall preserve all voted ballots securely in a locked room in the locked ballot boxes, or if they are electronic records, in a secure container, for the period of preservation required by the Election Code.

In the event that the Board's Agent shall determine from time to time that (a) the voting locations hereby established and designated shall become unavailable or unsuitable for such use, or it would be in the District's best interests to relocate the polling places, or (b) that the Presiding Election Judge, Alternate Presiding Judges appointed or hereinafter designated shall become disqualified or unavailable, the Board's Agent is hereby authorized to designate and appoint in writing substitute voting locations, Presiding Election Judges or Alternate Presiding Elections Judges, giving such notice as is required by the Election Code and as deemed sufficient. Furthermore, the Board's Agent is hereby authorized to allow Presiding Election Judges or Alternate Presiding Election Judges, upon request to designate and appoint such additional clerks as may be required from time to time to assist at polling places in order to efficiently carry out the duties of the office, giving such notice as is required by the Election Code and as deemed sufficient.

Section 9. Notice of Election Publication and Posting Requirements.

Publication of Notice of Election

Notice of the Election, containing a substantial copy of this Order, shall be published one time in the English and Spanish languages, in a newspaper published within the District's territory at least ten (10) days and no more than thirty (30) days before the Election and as otherwise may be required by the Texas Election Code. Moreover, Notice of the Election, containing a substantial copy of this Order, in both the English and Spanish languages, shall also be posted (i) on the notice board used by the Board to post notices of the Board's meetings, (ii) at three (3) other public places within the District, and (iii) on the District's Internet website, prominently and together with the notice of the election, voter information document, sample ballot, and contents of the Proposition, no later than the twenty-first (21st) day before the Election. Additionally, the Board President and the Agent to the Board Secretary, in consultation with bond counsel, are hereby authorized and directed to provide any other manner of notice as authorized by law. A copy of this Order, and the voter information document, in both the English and Spanish languages, shall be posted in a prominent location at each early voting location and at each voting location on Election Day.

Section 10. Debt Service and Tax Rate Information of the District.

The following information is provided in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.009(b), Texas Election Code:

- (a) The Proposition language that will appear on the ballot is set forth in Section 3 hereof.
- (b) The purpose for which the bonds are to be authorized is set forth in Sections 3 and 4 hereof.
- (c) The principal amount of the debt obligations to be authorized is $770,000,000.
- (d) Taxes sufficient to pay the annual principal of and interest on the bonds may be imposed.
- (e) If the bonds are approved, they may be issued in one or more series, to mature serially, over a period not to exceed forty (40) years from the date of issuance of each series of bonds.
- (f) The District's outstanding aggregate ad valorem tax-supported principal amount of debt as of the date of this Order is $414,210,000.
- (g) The aggregate amount of the interest owed on such District debt obligations, through respective maturity as of the date of this Order is $198,337,015.
- (h) The District levied an ad valorem debt service tax rate for its outstanding debt obligations of $0.01048 per $100 of taxable assessed valuation.
- (i) The District intends to issue the bonds authorized by the Proposition over a period of years in a manner and in accordance with a schedule to be determined by the Board based upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the then current needs of the District, demographic changes, prevailing market conditions, assessed valuations in the District and management of the District's short-term and long-term interest rate exposure. Market conditions, demographics, and assessed valuations vary based upon a number of factors beyond the District's control, and therefore, the District cannot and does not guarantee a particular interest rate or tax rate associated with the bonds authorized by the Proposition. As such, the information contained in this paragraph is provided solely for illustrative purposes and does not establish any limitations or restrictions or create a contract with the voters. The District currently estimates that, if the Proposition were approved and the bonds proposed herein were authorized and issued in accordance with the District's current estimated project plan of finance, the maximum interest rate of the bonds is not expected to exceed 5%. Such estimate takes into account a number of factors, including the issuance schedule, maturity schedule and the expected bond ratings of the proposed bonds.

If a majority of the resident, qualified electors of the District voting at the Election, including those voting early, shall vote in favor of the Proposition, then the issuance and sale of the bonds shall be authorized in the maximum respective amount contained therein, and the bonds shall be issued and sold at the price or prices and in such denominations determined by the Board to be in the District's best interests. District staff shall prepare a voter information document and post such document in accordance with Section 1251.052 of the Texas Government Code.

Section 11. Authority of the Board President. The Board President shall have the authority to take, or cause to be taken, all actions reasonable and necessary to ensure that the Election is fairly held and returns properly counted and tabulated for canvass by the Board, which actions are hereby ratified and confirmed. Without limiting the generality of the immediately preceding sentence, the Board President and his designees are hereby authorized to complete and update, as necessary, the exhibit attached hereto with voting locations and other information as same is made available by each County Clerk or Elections Administrator.

Section 12. Preamble Incorporation. The recitals contained in the preamble hereof are hereby found to be true, and such recitals are hereby made a part of this Order for all purposes and are adopted as a part of the judgment and findings of the Board.

Section 13. Inconsistent Provisions. All orders and resolutions, or parts thereof, which are in conflict or inconsistent with any provision of this Order are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict, and the provisions of this Order shall be and remain controlling as to the matters ordered herein.

Section 14. Governing Law. This Order shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas and the United States of America.

Section 15. Severability. If any provision of this Order or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid, the remainder of this Order and the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall nevertheless be valid, and the Board hereby declares that this Order would have been enacted without such invalid provision.

Section 16. Notice of Meeting. It is officially found, determined, and declared that the meeting at which this Order is adopted was open to the public and public notice of the time, place, and subject matter of the public business to be considered at such meeting, including this Order, was given, all as required by Chapter 551, as amended, Texas Government Code.

Section 17. Authorization to Execute. The President of the Board is authorized to execute and the Secretary of the Board is authorized to attest this Order on behalf of the Board; and the President of the Board is authorized to do all other things legal and necessary in connection with the holding and consummation of the Election.

Section 18. Effective Date. This Order is effective immediately upon its passage and approval.
