08.06.02 Pledge of Allegiance to the Flags. (Texas Pledge: Honor the Texas flag; I pledge allegiance to thee, Texas, one state under God, one and indivisible).
Judge Bonn led the Pledge to the Flags.

08.06.03 Discussion/Action to seek bids for building restoration, repair and painting for the main office of the Caldwell County Tax Assessor-Collector, Sheriff's office and the Luling Annex. Judge Bonn said that Commissioner Madrigal would like to prioritize the items as follows, 1. The Luling Annex, 2. The Tax Assessor-Collector office, 3. The Sheriff's Office. Commissioner Buchholtz had a sketch of a proposed floor plan and changes requested to the building. It was not the same as had been discussed in prior meetings. They also discussed the ADA requirements for not only the public but any employees in the future. After discussion about the changes and specs for the Luling Annex, the decision was to postpone decision for approval until the next Commissioner Court meeting. Commissioner Buchholtz read the specs for the Tax Assessor-Collector office and after several items were struck off, a motion was made by Commissioner Buchholtz, second by Commissioner Roland to approve the specs on the Tax Assessor Collector office as amended. All Present Voting "Aye" They will be retyped for publication and for the web site this week.

08.06.04 Adjournment
Motion made by Commissioner Buchholtz, second by Judge Bonn to adjourn. All Present Voting "Aye".
