Formula Grant Program Overview

The Texas Indigent Defense Commission (Commission) provides financial and technical support to counties to develop and maintain quality, cost-effective indigent defense systems that meet the needs of local communities and the requirements of the Constitution and state law. Re: Instructions for 2019 Biennial Submission of Indigent Defense Plans

Dear Judge Baldrige:

This letter is to inform you about an upcoming deadline for the submission of indigent defense plans and about one new submission requirement for your county's indigent defense plan.

The Fair Defense Act (FDA) requires the adoption and publication of written plans for appointment of counsel in criminal and juvenile cases. It also requires you, in your capacity as Hockley County Constitutional County Judge and Hockley County Juvenile Board Chairman, or your designee, to submit these plans to the Texas Indigent Defense Commission (TIDC) no later than November 1 of each odd-numbered year pursuant to Section 79.036, Texas Government Code. County plan submission is required to be eligible to receive grant funds from the TIDC.

Within a few days of receiving this packet you will receive an email from TIDC containing a hyperlink to the website where you may review, amend, and submit the plan currently on file. You will receive one email for each indigent defense plan for which you are the approving judge. Full instructions on this simple process follow this letter. In jurisdictions with a joint district and county courts plan, only the local administrative district judge is required to approve the plan so only that judge will receive an email with a request to do so.

I want to call your attention to a new requirement for this biennium's plan submission. For counties that use public defender offices, including the Regional Public Defender Office for Capital Cases, the plans must provide for the priority appointment of such offices. This requirement was added by the legislature in SB 583 this past session. All attorney fee schedules should be also be reviewed in light of the Court of Criminal Appeals decision in the Wice case barring payments that are outside the established flat or hourly rates provided in the fee schedules.

I also encourage you to remind the attorneys on your appointment lists about the need to complete the attorney practice time report for FY19 prior to the October 15th deadline established by the legislature. We plan to open the website (<https://tidc.tamu.edu/attorneyreporting/>) for attorneys to report their FY19 figures on September 20th.

Finally, the hyperlinked website from the forthcoming email requires a username and password for access. If you do not know your username or password, you may use the username and password recovery options on the homepage of the website, <https://tidc.tamu.edu>. Please contact Heather Caspers at Texas A&M's Public Policy Research Institute through e-mail (hcaspers@ppri.tamu.edu) or by phone at 979-845-6754 for technical assistance using the website. If you have any questions related to your plan or the new requirements, please call TIDC staff at 512-936-6994.

Sincerely,

Sharon Keller

Re: FY20 Formula Grant Request for Applications

Dear Judge Baldrige:

The Texas Indigent Defense Commission announces the FY20 Formula Grant Request for Applications (RFA). Applications are due November 15, 2019. The attached packet provides information on what is needed for counties to obtain the FY20 Formula Grant funds. There are two simple steps to apply for your formula grant:

MEMBERS APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR:
Mr. Alex Bunin
Honorable Valerie Covey
Honorable Richard Evans
Honorable Missy Medary
Mr. Gonzalo Rios

1. Commissioners Court should adopt the attached FY2020 TIDC Formula Grant Resolution.
2. Upload the signed resolution on TIDC's grant website, confirm contact information for county officials, and click the "submit" button.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR:
Geoffrey Burkhart

Step by step instructions are included in the Request for Applications.

To be eligible, the local administrative judges and chairs of Juvenile Boards must submit their biennial indigent defense plans by November 1, 2019 through our on-line system (<https://tidc.tamu.edu>). TIDC staff will continue to work with counties to ensure that all of the statutory and required elements are included in each plan if judges make amendments. Also, county financial officers must submit their Indigent Defense Expense Report by November 1, 2019. Both of these requirements are directed in Texas Government Code §79.036.

This FY20 Formula Grant packet is sent to all 254 constitutional county judges. A courtesy letter will be sent to all local administrative district and statutory county court at law judges and county financial officers informing them of the formula grant program. The Commission adopted Texas Administrative Code Chapter 173 in order to implement the grant authority established by the Texas Legislature. These administrative rules and the attached RFA are available at: www.tidc.texas.gov. The rules and the RFA establish the guidelines for the administration of grant funds and application submission process for FY20.

Please contact Edwin Colfax, Grant Program Manager at ecolfax@tidc.texas.gov or toll free in Texas at (866) 499-0656, if you have any questions about the FY20 Formula Grant Program or the application process.

Sincerely,

Sharon Keller
