Re: Thirty Day Notice to Terminate Contract for Dental Services
Hockley County Sheriff's Office and Abbeville Dentistry

This letter serves as Notice to Terminate the Contract for Dental Services between the Hockley County, Hockley County Sheriff's Office and Abbeville Dentistry. On July 8, 2024, the Hockley County Indigent Health Care Administrator verbally notified Abbeville Dentistry by phone that Hockley County would be terminating the contract for dental services. This contract is being terminated due to Abbeville Dentistry changing their fee reimbursement rates.

On June 25, 2024, Abbeville Dentistry notified Hockley County Indigent Health Care that they would no longer accept Medicaid reimbursement for dental services. Abbeville stated that they would now provide services for a 25% discount across the board instead of the Medicaid fee reimbursement.

Hockley County Inmates are covered under the Hockley County Indigent Health Care program. Indigent Health Care is a Medicaid based program and therefore, can only reimburse services that are billed using the Medicaid Fee Schedule.

The Hockley County Jail has been notified that they should no longer use Abbeville Dentistry for dental services for inmates. Hockley County will not be financially responsible for services provided after August 8, 2024.

Thank you,
