ARANSAS COUNTY, BEE COUNTY, LIVE OAK COUNTY,
McMULLEN COUNTY & SAN PATRICIO COUNTY

The following local rules governing the practice in the District Courts of the 36th, 156th, and 343rd Judicial Districts of Texas (hereinafter referred to as "the Courts") have been adopted.

The Clerk of the District Court of each of the counties composing the 36th, 156th, and 343rd Judicial Districts shall make available to each attorney practicing in such Court copies of these Rules.

1. JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

Rule 1.10 Election of the Local Administrative Judge.

Subject to Section 74.091 of the Texas Government Code and Rule 9 of the Rules of Judicial Administration, a majority of the District Judges will elect and prescribe the term of office of the Local Administrative Judge.

Rule 1.11 Information to Local Administrative Judge.

The District and County Clerks shall be responsible to each and all the Judges and Local Administrative Judge for the accurate collection and reporting of such information as may be prescribed in writing by the Regional Presiding Judge. Each Judge will have direct access to any such information and/or data collected at all reasonable times, Monday through Friday during work hours, and the Clerk shall produce all such and deliver same to any Judge upon request.

Rule 1.12 EMERGENCY AND SPECIAL MATTERS.

Subject to modification and without waiving their respective jurisdiction, each District Court Judge shall assume equal responsibility in emergency and special matters pursuant to Rule 10d of the Rules of Judicial Administration.

Rule 1.13 Judicial Vacation.

Whenever a judge anticipates absence of more than five (5) court days due to vacation, illness, national service, attendance at legal education courses, attendance to the meetings of judicial or bar committees, or otherwise, then that judge shall so inform the Presiding Judge of the Fourth Administrative Region so that another judge may be assigned to that court.

Rule 1.14 Powers and Duties of Local Administrative Judge.

The Local Administrative Judge shall see that each Court has the assistance of any other Judges who may be available for assignment and that the conduct of business is efficiently and fairly distributed to each judge having jurisdiction.

The Local Administrative Judge shall call meetings of the District Judges of the District at least once each month, preferably the first Friday of each month and additionally as needed. The Local Administrative Judge shall preside over such meetings, and in his or her absence the meeting Judge shall be conducted by another Judge present.

The Judges of the District Courts may meet with the Judges of the County Courts and County Courts at Law or any other persons responsible for the efficient administration of justice and make rules and orders relative to:

- (a) Docket management of the local courts;
- (b) Regular meetings to address the matters set forth in these rules and Rule 3e of the Rules of Judicial Administration;
- (c) Judicial budget matters;
- (d) Adult and juvenile probation matters;
- (e) County Auditor matters;
- (f) County purchasing matters;

2. CASE FILING AND TRIAL SETTING(S)

The Courts adopt the time standards for disposition of cases as established by the Constitution, Statutes, or by Rules of the Supreme Court, Rules of Judicial Administration, or by rules promulgated by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Rule 2.11 Court Sessions.

The Courts sitting in the above mentioned counties shall be set according to a published schedule or calendar. The Courts shall publish an annual calendar showing the weeks of jury trials, non-jury trials, holidays and other schedules and events and any other matters that will facilitate the work of the Court. The Courts' calendar shall be available to the litigants, their attorneys and to other persons requesting it.

Rule 2.12. Filing and Assignment of Cases.

All civil cases shall be assigned to a specific Court on a rotating basis.

All criminal cases filed in Aransas and San Patricio Counties shall be filed in the 36th District Court. All criminal cases filed in Bee, Live Oak and McMullen Counties shall be filed in the 156th District Court.

Rule 2.13 Transfer of Cases/Docket Exchange/Bench Exchange.

In each county of this District, civil cases assigned to a specific Court shall remain pending in that Court until final disposition, provided that any case may be transferred to another Court by Order of the Judge of the Court in which the case is pending with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which the case is transferred.

Whenever any pending civil case is so related to another civil case pending in or disposed of by another Court, that to transfer the case to such other Court would facilitate orderly and efficient disposition of the litigation, the Judges may agree to have such related cases heard and transferred to the Court in which the earlier action was filed.

Any Judge of the District Court serving this Judicial District may act for any other Judge of the District Court serving these Judicial Districts in any case.

Rule 2.14 Request for Settings

Uncontested non-jury civil cases may be set for trial upon request to the Court Administrators' office in Sinton, Texas. Such request may be made by telephone, by letter, by Motion to Set or in any other manner that may be appropriate. Notice of such Motion or request shall be mailed to all other counsel in the case.

Contested non-jury and Jury civil cases may be set by request from any party or upon the Court's own Motion by a scheduling or Docket Control Conference through the Court Administrators' office in Sinton.

Docket control conferences will be held by telephone conference call unless otherwise specified. The Court administrators will notify all attorneys of record and pro se parties of the date and hour at of the conference call or the date which the attorneys and pro se parties, if any, are to appear.

The Court Administrators will designate the party who shall be responsible for arranging the conference call on the date and time scheduled by the Court Administrator.

When any attorney in charge for either party or pro se litigant, after notice and without good cause, fails to appear for a docket control conference or fails to be available for telephone docket control conference, the Court may:

1. Make all scheduling decisions and rule on all motions, exceptions or other matters in the absence of such counsel;

2. Declare any motions or exceptions of an absent party waived;
3. Advance or delay the trial setting or other such scheduling matters, or decline to set the case for trial, or cancel a setting previously made, according to the convenience of counsel present;
4. Pass and re-set the docket control conference, in which case the party represented shall be entitled to recover his reasonable attorney's fees and expenses;
5. Consider the absence of the attorney in charge as a contempt of Court, and punish counsel accordingly;
6. Have the case set for Dismissal or schedule the matter for Dismissal for Want of Prosecution.

The Administrator will prepare a Docket Control Order and the Court will sign the same which recites any action taken or agreements reached at the scheduling conference, and such order when entered, shall control the subsequent course of the action.

Rule 2.15 Request for Preferential Setting.

Cases may be set for preferential setting by consent of the Judge involved.

Rule 2.16 Ex Parte Relief

All applications for ex parte relief shall state whether or not within the knowledge of applicant and his attorney the opposing party is represented by counsel and if so the name of such counsel. The party requesting such ex parte temporary relief shall be present in Court at the time such relief is requested unless the Court waives this requirement for good cause shown.

Rule 2.17 Docket Calls and Announcements.

Each Judge shall call the number and style of the cases assigned for that day at the commencement of proceedings, at which time the attorneys for each party shall indicate whether they are ready for trial and how long the trial of the matter before the Court will take.

Rule 2.18 Dismissal Docket: Involuntary Dismissal.

If there have been no proceedings or activity in any case during the previous six (6) months, the Cause may be subject to dismissal for want of prosecution in accordance with Rule 165a of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. The Clerk will send notice of Intention to Dismiss such case to each of the attorneys in the case and if no request for trial is made after fifteen (15) days or such other time as may be prescribed by Rule 165a, the Cause may be dismissed.

Rule 2.19 Suspense Docket.

If a case has been stayed because it has been abated for any reason, or because a suggestion of bankruptcy proceedings involving the party thereto has been received or for any other reason, the Cause shall not be dismissed but shall be suspended until it can be determined whether the Court may proceed. The attorneys shall be responsible for notifying the Court of any change in the status of such case and respond to an inquiry from the Court in order that it may be expeditiously heard or dismissed.

3. MOTIONS AND TRIAL

Rule 3.10 Pre-Trial and Pre-Trial Motions.

At Pre-Trial Hearing all parties shall present their exceptions, motions and dilatory pleas, including Motions in Limine for rulings by the Court. Failure to present such exceptions, motions and pleas in a timely manner may cause them to be waived.

Counsel and any pro se parties shall be required to attend Pre-Trial hearings and will be expected to advise the Court which issues will be disputed and will be expected to be familiar with authorities applicable to questions of law thereby raised. Counsel and pro se parties attending the Pre-Trial Conference shall be the person who is expected to try the case or shall be familiar with the case and fully authorized to state the parties' position on the law and facts, make stipulations and enter into settlement negotiations. Should the Court find that counsel is not so qualified, it may consider that no counsel has appeared and may take action against the party involved.

The hearing of the Pre-Trial Conference may be by telephone conference call only if requested by any attorney and approved by the Court.

Rule 3.11 Disposition Motions and Other Preliminary Matters.

Preliminary matters may be disposed of either by hearing before the Court or upon written submission of authorities by counsel. Any party may request a hearing so long as the same is requested prior to the time that the Court makes its ruling.

Rule 3.12 Motions for Severance.

When a Motion to Sever is sustained, the severed claim shall be filed as a new case in the same Court and shall be given a new or suffix number or letter by the Clerk in whose Court the case is pending. The original case from which the claim is severed shall retain the original number given it by the Clerk of the Court. Before the severed claim is filed as a new case, the Clerk's requirement concerning deposit for costs shall be met.

Rule 3.13 Motions for Continuance.

Any grounds for continuance of a trial setting should be presented to the Court at least ten (10) days prior to the trial setting at the call of the docket or at Pre-Trial Conference.

No Motion for Continuance of a trial setting, including joint or agreed motions of all parties shall be granted without the Court's consent. Upon granting a Motion for Continuance, a setting conference shall immediately be held and the Order granting such Motion for Continuance should contain an Order resetting the case for trial.

Rule 3.14 Motions for Default Judgment.

After the appearance date of the defendant in a case has passed, a written request for entry of a Default Judgment may be made, and a form of judgment presented, together with any affidavits as to unliquidated parts of such claim. If the parties desire a hearing for default judgment, the Court Administrator should be contacted for appropriate time for setting. If a claim is liquidated and represented by documents filed, no hearing is necessary. For unliquidated claims, affidavits or testimony may be made the basis for a judgment by the Court.

Rule 3.15 Motions for Summary Judgment.

All motions for summary judgment will be set by submission only unless otherwise approved by the Court. A submission date will be given upon request made to the Court Administrator. Courtesy copies of all motions, responses and replies shall be mailed to the Judge prior to the submission date.

Rule 3.16 Motions for Referral of Disputes or Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures.

The Court may, on its own motion or the motion of any party, refer a pending dispute for resolution of an alternative dispute resolution procedure as provided for in Chapters 151, 152 or 154 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

Any party may, within ten (10) days after receiving notification of a referral, file a written objection which sets forth a reasonable basis for the party's objection to referral and the same shall be forthwith set by the Judge for hearing and resolution.

Whenever a case is referred to alternative dispute resolution (ADR), the Court shall appoint a mediator but counsel may agree upon a certain mediator with court approval.

Rule 3.17 Discovery Motions.

All counsel are expected to engage in good faith negotiations pursuant to the discovery and deposition rules of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Requests for hearings on motions for discovery, for protection, to quash interrogatories or requests for sanctions may be heard at any time, in any county in which the Judge having jurisdiction of the case can hear the same.

Rule 3.18 Settlements.

All trial counsel are urged to make a bona fide effort to settle cases before announcing ready for trial.

When an attorney settles or dismisses a case which is set for trial, he shall give notice to the Court Administrator as soon as possible and submit a written dismissal or judgment forthwith.

The Court reserves the right to require the presence of counsel and the parties at the time for which trial was set if no documentary evidence of the settlement has been received before the call of the docket.

Rule 3.19 Conflicting Engagements of Counsel.

When a Motion for Continuance is made on the basis that counsel already has a trial setting in another court, such motion should state the court and cause number and style of the case pending elsewhere and should include the estimated length of time the attorney will be unavailable to this Court. The Court reserves the right to verify that appearance of counsel is necessary in any other Courts.

At docket control or scheduling conference, each attorney shall be responsible for disclosing to the Court Administrator or Judge any conflicting engagements of counsel that may interfere with a trial setting. Tentative schedules in some other Court will not be grounds for granting a continuance. In the event the case in the other Court is passed, continued or disposed of prior to or during the week in which the case is set for trial in these Courts, the attorney shall immediately notify the Court and opposing counsel of such fact.

In case of such conflicting settings, the Court whose date of setting is the earliest has preference; except that criminal cases in all District Courts shall have priority over civil cases.

Rule 3.20 Witnesses/Exhibits.

Cases announced to be ready on the date of trial shall in all respects be ready, with witnesses and other evidence available so that the trial may proceed without delay and/or interference. Insofar as is possible, counsel for the party shall pre-mark for identification all items to be introduced into evidence and further shall notify the Court as to those items upon which counsel can agree may be admitted into evidence without objection.

In any case where a witness does not speak English, the attorney presenting such witness shall make provision for a properly qualified interpreter to be present at the time of such witness's testimony.

Rule 3.21 Jury Charges.

A jury charge, with questions and instructions that may be reasonably anticipated should be prepared and submitted to the Court at pre-trial hearing, or at least seven (7) days in advance of trial, whichever is earlier.

All parties seeking access to a child or seeking appointment as a conservator (whether joint, sole or possessory) shall complete a Parent Education and Family Stabilization Course pursuant to the Texas Family Code and the Minute Order of the District Courts. This course must be completed prior to the matter being set for trial.

To expedite trials, it shall be the duty of each attorney to confer prior to trial with each other attorney regarding settlement, stipulations, estimated time of trial, waiver of jury, the extent, description, character and value of property in question, amount of support, conservatorship, periods of possession and/or access rights, duties and powers of the conservators, and contested issues.

Trial settings shall be made as set out in Rule 2.14 herein.

Child support payments are to be ordered withheld from the obligor's earnings. The name and address of the obligor's employer must accompany any order for withholding from income for child support.

Rule 4.11 Property Division

In all cases requiring a division of property and/or liabilities, the husband and wife shall each file with the court and exchange between themselves, sworn inventories. Each inventory shall list the value of each item of property and shall list each liability, the number of periodic payments in arrears, if any, the property securing its payments, and the name of the creditor. Any property or liability claimed to be separate shall be so characterized.

Each attorney shall submit a proposed property division, including property claimed or recognized as separate property, to the Court and opposing counsel not later than the commencement of trial. A courtesy copy of the inventory shall be provided to the Court at the time of hearing.

Rule 4.12 Bureau of Vital Statics Forms

5. CRIMINAL CASES

Rule 5.10 Felony Cases.

After indictments are returned and the Clerk has issued precepts, a Docket Call shall be held at which each Defendant is expected to appear with his attorney if one has been engaged. If he has no attorney, he should be prepared to fill out the form requesting an attorney. If he is found to be indigent, an attorney will be appointed and the case set for trial by jury and for an earlier pre-trial and announcement. The Criminal Pre-Trial proceedings shall be governed by Article 28 of the Texas Rules of Criminal Procedure.

If court-appointed attorneys are necessary in any criminal case the appointment and procedures shall be pursuant to the 36th, 156th and 343rd Judicial District's Alternate Plan and Standing Rules and Order for Procedures for Timely and Fair Appointment of Counsel for Indigent Defendants in Felony Cases.

Rule 5.11 Appearance of Defendants and Counsel

In criminal cases all Defendants and their attorneys must be personally present in Court during arraignment, pre-trial hearings and announcements unless appearance has been waived by the Court in advance. Attorneys are required to notify the Office of the Judge and of the Clerk in writing that they are employed in the case. If such retainer notice is not given to the Clerk prior to the dates of hearing, pre-trial hearing, arraignment, announcement or trial, the Court may make an appointment from among the attorneys available to the Court for appointment and the client may be required to pay for such services. Substitution of retained counsel, who failed to notify the Court of retention, may only be permitted by leave of the Court.

At Announcement each Defendant and Attorney must attend and announce for the Jury Trial setting in order that the parties may prepare for trial. The trial shall be by jury on the date appointed and shall likewise be governed by the Texas Rules of Criminal Procedure relating to criminal jury trials.

Each juror shall bring the questionnaire to Court and the questionnaires shall be available to the attorneys in jury selection.

During all weeks in which cases are set, juries will be summoned for 9:00 A.M. on Monday or at other appropriate times, as ordered by the Judge, and will be subject to assignment during the ensuing week, and may be carried over for additional weeks on order of the Judge.

All juries will be selected on the first day of each jury week or at the Judge's discretion. After jury selection, any case may be recessed to a time certain during the trial week or a subsequent week. Where more than one jury is to be selected, counsel in all cases should be present at the entire voir dire in order to refrain from repeating questions already asked of members of the jury panel on voir dire of a previous case.
