

CAUSE NO. _____

THE STATE OF TEXAS

IN THE 66TH JUDICIAL

VS.

DISTRICT COURT OF

HILL COUNTY, TEXAS

ADMONISHMENT TO DEFENDANT ON MOTION TO REVOKE PROBATION OR
MOTION TO PROCEED TO FINAL ADJUDICATION

A. NOTICE OF CHARGE

In the above styled and numbered cause the above named defendant, having previously been placed on probation, duly acknowledges that he or she is charged, in a charging instrument filed by the State of Texas , styled as an:

_____ 1. Original or Amended MOTION TO REVOKE PROBATION filed on _____, in this Court.

or

_____ 2. Original or Amended MOTION TO PROCEED TO FINAL ADJUDICATION filed on _____, in this Court.

B. NOTICE OF RIGHT TO HAVE CHARGING INSTRUMENT READ ALOUD

You have the right to have the charging instrument, being either the original or amended MOTION TO REVOKE PROBATION OR the original or amended MOTION TO PROCEED TO FINAL ADJUDICATION, above mentioned, as applicable, read aloud and in open Court.

C. INFORMATION REGARDING RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL

There is no right to a jury trial at this proceeding. The trial is entirely before the Court.

D. BURDEN OF PROOF

While the burden of proof remains with the State of Texas, that burden, in this proceeding is “preponderance of the evidence only” and not “beyond a reasonable doubt.”

E. EFFECT OF A “TRUE” PLEA

If you enter a TRUE plea to any count or accusation in the applicable charging instrument in this cause, it is not necessary that the Court take any additional evidence or testimony to find that the particular count or accusation to which you have pled TRUE is TRUE, and instead will rely solely on your said plea(s) of TRUE to find the same is, in fact TRUE. It is, therefore, most important that you fully consider how you plead to each count, before you enter your plea.

STATES EXHIBIT 1

F. EFFECT OF A "TRUE" FINDING

If the Court finds any count in the charging instrument herein being considered before the Court to be TRUE then the Court may set punishment anywhere within the range of punishment set forth by law.

G. EFFECT OF PLEA NEGOTIATIONS

The Court is not bound by any plea negotiation you may have entered with the State of Texas. If the Court rejects any agreement which has been negotiated, you will be allowed to withdraw any plea(s) of true as you choose and the case will proceed to trial or be set for trial.

H. RIGHT TO AN ATTORNEY AND CONFRONT WITNESSES

The defendant understands he or she has a right to an attorney, whether or not he or she can afford an attorney. The defendant understands he or she has the right to confront witnesses against said defendant as provided by law.

I. RIGHT TO APPEAL

In certain situations, especially with regard to those matters raised by written motion prior to trial, the defendant may be able to appeal any judgment and sentence in the cause. If the defendant is indigent and unable to afford an attorney, one can be appointed to represent the defendant in the appeal at no cost to the defendant. A copy of the transcription can be provided unto that attorney for his or her use in handling the appeal, again at no cost to defendant, in such event. A trial court's "revocation" of deferred adjudication community supervision is reviewable in the same manner as a revocation hearing in which an adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.

J. DISCLOSURE

If this proceeding takes place on or after January 1, 2014, and the alleged offense was committed on or after January 1, 2014 and before the Court accepts a plea of true and/or guilty or nolo contendere, or before trial, each party acknowledges by this writing, or on the record, in open court, that disclosure, receipt, and a list of all documents, items and information as required under SB 1611, 2013 legislative session, amending Article 39.14 CCP, has been provided to the full extent required.

K. CITIZENSHIP INFORMATION

If you are not a citizen of the United States of America, it is presumptively mandatory and virtually certain under federal law that a plea of guilty or nolo contendere for this offense will result in deportation, the exclusion from admission to this country, or the denial of naturalization under federal law. Counsel for defendant certifies that proper legal advice about the adverse consequences of such a plea has been provided to the defendant prior to the plea herein.

THE ABOVE DEFENDANT, TOGETHER WITH HIS OR HER ATTORNEY, IF ANY, HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES, THAT BY SIGNING THIS WRITTEN DOCUMENT BELOW, THE COURT HAS PROVIDED SAID DEFENDANT THE ABOVE STYLED ADMONITIONS AND THAT SAID DEFENDANT FULLY UNDERSTANDS EACH SAID ADMONITION AND WARNING AND CONSEQUENCES REGARDING SAME, AND THAT SAID DEFENDANT HAS BEEN DULY AND FULLY ADMONISHED.

The above named defendant, and counsel, if applicable, being duly admonished, in open court, freely and voluntarily elect to WAIVE and give up the rights set forth below, and said waivers are approved by the State's attorney as well, to-wit:

1. Waiver of Reading Aloud the Charging Instrument (Item B above);
2. Waiver of Appeal (Item I above), including any right to file a Motion for New Trial;
3. Waiver of any claim that defendant's attorney, if any, has been ineffective in representation of defendant, and waives any claim that any plea herein is the product of coercion or duress and instead stipulates that same has been freely and intelligently and voluntarily given.
4. Waiver of the right to the time allowed by law to file motions and pleadings and to prepare for hearing, and abandons all motions, pleadings and objections made before the entry of the pleas.
5. Waiver of any right to require a presentence investigation report be made before sentencing.
6. Waiver of the right to the appearance, confrontation, and cross-examination of witnesses, the right against self-incrimination, and hereby consents to the oral and written stipulation of evidence.

Defendant is mentally competent and fully understands the State's Motion (charging instrument) and these plea documents, and has no questions about these documents or his or her rights. No promises or representations about the amount of actual time Defendant will serve on any sentence of incarceration, nor representations about the disposition of any parole revocation hearing, have been made to Defendant by the Court, the attorney representing the State, or Defendant's counsel.

Defendant, Counsel for Defendant, if any, and the State have entered into a plea bargain agreement on the following terms: In exchange for Defendant's plea of TRUE to the allegations before the Court and Defendant's agreement to waive any right to new trial or appeal, the State makes the following punishment recommendation:

"A defendant in a criminal case has the right of appeal under these rules. The trial court shall enter a certification of the defendant's right to appeal in every case in which it enters a judgment of guilt or other appealable order. In a plea-bargain case, that is, a case in which a defendant's plea of guilty or nolo contendere and the punishment did not exceed the punishment recommended by the prosecutor and agreed to by the defendant, a defendant may appeal only: (A) those matters that were raised by written motion filed and ruled on before trial, or (B) after getting the trial court's permission to appeal."
