Public Comment:

Minutes:

Elected Officials/Department Heads:

Discussion:

1. Discussion with the City of Brady regarding EMS services to McCulloch County residents was heard with suggested changes in wording to clarify document for any citizen and future Elected Officials(County or City) to better understand. The providing of service in the unincorporated areas of McCulloch County was marked for change in the Interlocal Agreement to reflect such. Several other changes to be made is the removal of the wording of Fire and Fire Services to reflect that it is provided and at no charge, as EMS Services are provided and charged. Dates for terms, future terms, annual renewal times, and termination times are to be adjusted in agreement to give ample time review, discuss, and prepare paperwork and make future decisions. Discussion was held on the formula’s for obtaining dollar amounts that are given to the County, all parties agreed to the formula that is now in use.

Action:

Having no further business, the meeting adjourned at 11:54 AM with Commissioner Anderson making the motion and seconded by Commissioner Deans. All in favor motion carried. 4-0
