On April 27, 2020, I issued an amendment that declared personal appearance businesses in Schleicher County as essential businesses. Also, I attached an order of necessary steps of how such a business should operate.

The Governor's latest order that took effect on May 1, 2020 supersedes all my orders. Part of his order was for citizens to STAY AWAY from bars, gyms, hair salons, and other personal businesses. On April 30, 2020, the Attorney General issued an opinion that both the operator of a personal appearance business and the customer would be breaking the law if a business activity took place.

Based on the information I now have available which was not available at the time of my amended order, I am rescinding the April 27, 2020 amended order.

Governor Abbott has promised to revisit this issue with the personal appearance businesses on May 18, 2020. Until then, the Attorney General has said the Governor's order must be obeyed.
